Post 8/9/70

By Jim McNamara—The Washington Post

AID TO SERVICEMEN—From left, Marilyn Moorhead, author Mark Lane, writer Don Duncan and actress Jane Fonda at press conference in the Ambassador Hotel here yesterday, announce the opening of a "GI Office," to channel complaints by U.S. service personnel who feel their rights have been violated by the military. Miss Moorhead and Duncan will man the office on MacArthur Boulevard, investigating complaints and referring them to interested groups and congressmen. Miss Fonda and Lane said the office is supported by private groups.